9 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

10 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

11 NATIONAL UNION FIRE INSURANCE
 12 COMPANY OF PITTSBURGH, PA,

13 Plaintiff,
 14 vs.
 15

AFFINITYLIFESTYLES.COM, INC. d/b/a
 16 REAL WATER, a Nevada Corporation, *et al.*¹

17 Defendants.

18 Case No.: 2:25-cv-00083-CDS-EJY

PUTATIVE DEFENDANT LISA KING'S
 ANSWER TO NATIONAL UNION FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF
 PITTSBURGH, PA'S COMPLAINT IN INTERPLEADER

19 AND

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL ON ALL CLAIMS THAT MAY BE SO TRIED

20
 21 Putative Defendant Lisa King, by and through her counsel of record, Robert T. Eglet, Esq.
 22 Tracy A. Eglet, Esq., and Erica D. Entsminger, Esq., of the law firm Eglet Law, hereby responds,
 23 answers, and asserts affirmative defenses to the Complaint in Interpleader (ECF No. 1)
 24 ("Complaint") filed by National Union Fire Insurance Company of Pittsburgh, PA (hereinafter 25 "NUFIC" or "National Union") as follows:

26 . . .

27 . . .

¹ Pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 10(a), the caption has been abbreviated. The full caption is set forth in the Complaint at ECF No. 1.

1 I. GENERAL RESPONSES

2 1. This interpleader action does not involve, affect, or otherwise impair any claims,
 3 causes of action, and/or rights to damages against National Union related to National Union's 4 independent liability, including, but not limited to, liability for bad faith, breach of contract, breach
 5 of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, violation of NRS 686A, breach of the duty
 6 to settle, and/or any other tortious conduct (collectively, "Bad Faith Liability"). See 9/30/25 Order
 7 Deniesing Defendants' Motions to Dismiss [ECF No. 172] (the "9/30/25 Order") at 15
 8 ("[I]nterpleader does not shield a stakeholder from tort liability, nor from liability in excess of the 9 stake when a stakeholder may be independently liable to one or more claimants. And National 10 Union affirmatively represents that they are not seeking discharge of any liability other than that 11 related to the limits of the policy at issue here.") (Citations omitted). Putative Defendant King
 12 reserves all rights, remedies, and/or claims that may exist now or in the future against National 13 Union relating to National Union's Bad Faith Liability, which may not be adjudicated as part of 14 any interpleader action and will be pursued separately.

15 2. Except as expressly admitted herein, Putative Defendant King denies each and 16 every allegation, statement, and contention in NUFIC's Complaint.

17 3. Putative Defendant King specifically denies that NUFIC properly invoked
 18 interpleader under 28 U.S.C. § 1335 or FRCP 22, denies that NUFIC is entitled to discharge, and 19 denies that interpleader was filed in good faith.

20 II. SPECIFIC RESPONSES

21 NATURE OF THE ACTION

22 1. In answering Paragraph 1 of the Complaint, Putative Defendant King objects to the 23 narrative set forth in this Paragraph as compound and in violation of the requirement under the 24 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure that "each allegation must be simple, concise, and direct." See
 25 Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(d)(1). To the extent a response is required, Putative Defendant King generally admits
 26 that multiple lawsuits have been filed by various individuals ("Personal Injury Plaintiffs") against 27 Real Water, Inc. ("RWI"), Affilitylifestyles.com, Inc. ("Affinity"), and other parties alleging injuries
 28 from consuming alkalized water sold under the brand name "Real Water," and that certain of these

1 lawsuits (the “Real Water Actions”) have proceeded to trial. Putative Defendant King lacks
2 information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this Paragraph 3 and on that basis denies the same.

25 this Paragraph and on that basis denies the allegations.

THE NATIONAL UNION POLICY

27 97. In answering Paragraph 97 of the Complaint, the allegations in this Paragraph 28 consist of legal conclusions and/or describe document(s) which speak for themselves. To the

NEGLECT LAW

1 extent a response is required, Putative Defendant King generally admits that a policy was issued,
2 but lacks information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this
3 Paragraph and on that basis denies the allegations. Putative Defendant King denies any
4 characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union that is inconsistent with the 5 referenced document(s) or the law.

6 98. In answering Paragraph 98 of the Complaint, the allegations in this Paragraph
7 consist of legal conclusions and/or describe document(s) which speak for themselves. To the
8 extent a response is required, Putative Defendant King generally admits that a policy was issued,
9 but lacks information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this
10 Paragraph and on that basis denies the allegations. Putative Defendant King denies any
11 characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union that is inconsistent with the 12 referenced document(s) or the law.

13 99. In answering Paragraph 99 of the Complaint, Putative Defendant King objects to 14 the narrative set forth in this Paragraph as compound and in violation of the requirement under the 15 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure that “each allegation must be simple, concise, and direct.” See
16 Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(d)(1). Further, the allegations in this Paragraph describe document(s) which 17 speak for themselves and consist of legal conclusions, including regarding terms, limits, and/or 18 coverage scope, for which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Putative
19 Defendant King lacks information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in 20 this Paragraph and on that basis denies the allegations. Putative Defendant King denies any
21 characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union that is inconsistent with the 22 referenced document(s) or the law.

23 100. In answering Paragraph 100 of the Complaint, the allegations in this Paragraph
24 describe document(s) which speak for themselves and consist of legal conclusions, including
25 regarding terms, limits, and/or coverage scope, for which no response is required. To the extent a
26 response is required, Putative Defendant King lacks information sufficient to form a belief as to 27 the truth of the allegations in this Paragraph and on that basis denies the allegations. Putative
28

1 Defendant King denies any characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union that
2 is inconsistent with the referenced document(s) or the law.

3 101. In answering Paragraph 101 of the Complaint, the allegations in this Paragraph
4 describe document(s) which speak for themselves and consist of legal conclusions, including
5 regarding terms, limits, and/or coverage scope, for which no response is required. To the extent a
6 response is required, Putative Defendant King lacks information sufficient to form a belief as to
7 the truth of the allegations in this Paragraph and on that basis denies the allegations. Putative
8 Defendant King denies any characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union that

13 allegations in this Paragraph and on that basis denies the allegations.

THE PERSONAL INJURY LAWSUITS

15 103. In answering Paragraph 103, the allegations in this Paragraph consist of legal 16 conclusions and/or describe public court records which speak for themselves. To the extent a
17 response is required, Putative Defendant King generally admits that she filed a lawsuit for injuries
18 she suffered from drinking Real Water against certain parties in the District Court of Clark County,
19 Nevada, but she lacks information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining
20 allegations in this Paragraph and on that basis denies the allegations. Putative Defendant King
21 denies any characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union that is inconsistent 22 with the public court records or the law.

23 104. In answering Paragraph 104, the allegations in this Paragraph consist of legal
24 conclusions and/or describe public court records which speak for themselves. Putative Defendant
25 King denies any characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union that is 26 inconsistent with the public court records or the law.

27 105. In answering Paragraph 105, the allegations in this Paragraph consist of legal
28 conclusions and/or describe public court records which speak for themselves. Putative Defendant

NEGLECT LAW

1 King denies any characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union that is
2 inconsistent with the public court records or the law.

3 106. In answering Paragraph 106, the allegations in this Paragraph consist of legal
4 conclusions and/or describe public court records which speak for themselves. Putative Defendant
5 King denies any characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union that is
6 inconsistent with the public court records or the law.

7 107. In answering Paragraph 107, the allegations in this Paragraph consist of legal
8 conclusions and/or describe public court records which speak for themselves. Putative Defendant
9 King denies any characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union that is
10 inconsistent with the public court records or the law.

11 108. In answering Paragraph 108, Putative Defendant King object to the narrative set
12 forth in this Paragraph as compound and in violation of the requirement under the Federal Rules
13 of Civil Procedure that “each allegation must be simple, concise, and direct.” See Fed. R. Civ. P.
14 8(d)(1). Further, the allegations in this Paragraph consist of legal conclusions and/or describe
15 public court records which speak for themselves. To the extent a response is required, Putative
16 Defendant King lacks information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in
17 this Paragraph and on that basis denies the allegations. Putative Defendant King denies any
18 characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union that is inconsistent with the 19 public court records or the law.

20 109. In answering Paragraph 109, Putative Defendant King object to the narrative set
21 forth in this Paragraph as compound and in violation of the requirement under the Federal Rules
22 of Civil Procedure that “each allegation must be simple, concise, and direct.” See Fed. R. Civ. P.
23 8(d)(1). Further, the allegations in this Paragraph consist of legal conclusions and/or describe
24 public court records which speak for themselves. To the extent a response is required, Putative
25 Defendant King generally admits that her lawsuit for injuries she suffered from drinking Real
26 Water was pending and had not proceeded to trial at the time of the filing of this action, but Putative
27 Defendant King otherwise lacks information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the 28 remaining allegations in this Paragraph and on that basis denies the allegations. Putative Defendant

King denies any characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union that is inconsistent with the public court records or the law.

3 110. In answering Paragraph 110, Putative Defendant King lacks information sufficient
4 to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this Paragraph and on that basis denies the 5 allegations.

BANKRUPTCY PROCEEDINGS

7 111. In answering Paragraph 111, the allegations in this Paragraph describe public court
8 records which speak for themselves. Putative Defendant King denies the allegations, including
9 any characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union, to the extent inconsistent
10 with the referenced documents.

11 112. In answering Paragraph 112, the allegations in this Paragraph describe public court
12 records which speak for themselves. Putative Defendant King denies the allegations, including
13 any characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union, to the extent inconsistent
14 with the referenced documents.

15 113. In answering Paragraph 113, the allegations in this Paragraph describe public court
16 records which speak for themselves. Putative Defendant King denies the allegations, including
17 any characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union, to the extent inconsistent
18 with the referenced documents.

19 114. In answering Paragraph 114, the allegations in this Paragraph describe public court
20 records which speak for themselves. Putative Defendant King denies the allegations, including
21 any characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union, to the extent inconsistent
22 with the referenced documents.

23 115. In answering Paragraph 115, the allegations in this Paragraph describe public court
24 records which speak for themselves. Putative Defendant King denies the allegations, including
25 any characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union, to the extent inconsistent
26 with the referenced documents.

27 116. In answering Paragraph 116, Putative Defendant King objects to the narrative set
28 forth in this Paragraph as compound and in violation of the requirement under the Federal Rules

NEGLECT LAW

1 of Civil Procedure that “each allegation must be simple, concise, and direct.” See Fed. R. Civ. P.
2 8(d)(1). Further, the allegations in this Paragraph consist of legal conclusions and/or describe
3 public court records which speak for themselves. To the extent a response is required, Putative
4 Defendant King generally admits that she and the Trustee entered into an agreement that granted
5 Putative Defendant King two key rights: i) the right to continue pursuing her action in state court
6 and ii) the right to seek recovery from Real Water’s insurers, but Putative Defendant King
7 otherwise lacks information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations
8 in this Paragraph and on that basis denies the allegations. Putative Defendant King denies any
9 characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union that is inconsistent with the 10 public court records or the law. This interpleader action does not involve, affect, or otherwise
11 impair any claims, causes of action, and/or rights to damages against National Union related to 12 National Union’s independent liability, including, but not limited to, claims for Bad Faith Liability.

13 See 9/30/25 Order [ECF No. 172] at 15 (“[I]nterpleader does not shield a stakeholder from tort
14 liability, nor from liability in excess of the stake when a stakeholder may be independently liable
15 to one or more claimants. And National Union affirmatively represents that they are not seeking
16 discharge of any liability other than that related to the limits of the policy at issue here.”) (Citations 17 omitted).

18 117. In answering Paragraph 117, Putative Defendant King objects to the narrative set
19 forth in this Paragraph as compound and in violation of the requirement under the Federal Rules
20 of Civil Procedure that “each allegation must be simple, concise, and direct.” See Fed. R. Civ. P.
21 8(d)(1). Further, the allegations in this Paragraph consist of legal conclusions to which no response
22 is required. To the extent a response is required, Putative Defendant King lacks information
23 sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in this Paragraph and on that 24 basis denies the allegations. This interpleader action does not involve, affect, or otherwise impair 25 any claims, causes of action, and/or rights to damages against National Union related to National 26 Union’s independent liability, including, but not limited to, claims for Bad Faith Liability. See 27 9/30/25 Order [ECF No. 172] at 15 (“[I]nterpleader does not shield a stakeholder from tort liability, 28 nor from liability in excess of the stake when a stakeholder may be independently liable to one or

1 more claimants. And National Union affirmatively represents that they are not seeking discharge
2 of any liability other than that related to the limits of the policy at issue here.”) (Citations omitted).

3 118. In answering Paragraph 118, Putative Defendant King objects to the narrative set
4 forth in this Paragraph as compound and in violation of the requirement under the Federal Rules
5 of Civil Procedure that “each allegation must be simple, concise, and direct.” See Fed. R. Civ. P.
6 8(d)(1). Further, the allegations in this Paragraph consist of legal conclusions and/or describe
7 public court records which speak for themselves. Putative Defendant King denies any
8 characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union that is inconsistent with the
9 public court records or the law. This interpleader action does not involve, affect, or otherwise
10 impair any claims, causes of action, and/or rights to damages against National Union related to
11 National Union’s independent liability, including, but not limited to, claims for Bad Faith Liability.
12 See 9/30/25 Order [ECF No. 172] at 15 (“[I]nterpleader does not shield a stakeholder from tort

14 to one or more claimants. And National Union affirmatively represents that they are not seeking
15 discharge of any liability other than that related to the limits of the policy at issue here.”) (Citations
16 omitted).

17 119. In answering Paragraph 119, Putative Defendant King objects to the narrative set
18 forth in this Paragraph as compound and in violation of the requirement under the Federal Rules
19 of Civil Procedure that “each allegation must be simple, concise, and direct.” See Fed. R. Civ. P.
20 8(d)(1). Further, the allegations in this Paragraph consist of legal conclusions and/or describe
21 public court records which speak for themselves. Putative Defendant King denies any
22 characterization, interpretation, or description by National Union that is inconsistent with the
23 public court records or the law. This interpleader action does not involve, affect, or otherwise
24 impair any claims, causes of action, and/or rights to damages against National Union related to
25 National Union’s independent liability, including, but not limited to, claims for Bad Faith Liability.
26 See 9/30/25 Order [ECF No. 172] at 15 (“[I]nterpleader does not shield a stakeholder from tort

28 to one or more claimants. And National Union affirmatively represents that they are not seeking

1 discharge of any liability other than that related to the limits of the policy at issue here.”) (Citations
2 omitted).

3 120. In answering Paragraph 120, this Paragraph consists of a legal conclusion to which 4 no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Putative Defendant King lacks
5 information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this Paragraph and on
6 that basis denies the allegations.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Interpleader of Limits of Liability)

9 121. In answering Paragraph 121 of the Complaint, Putative Defendant King repeats and 10 incorporates her responses to each of the preceding Paragraphs.

11 122. In answering Paragraph 122 of the Complaint, Putative Defendant King lacks
12 information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this Paragraph and on 13 that basis denies the allegations.

14 123. In answering Paragraph 123 of the Complaint, Putative Defendant King generally
15 denies that all the identified Personal Injury Plaintiffs have not proceeded to trial. Putative
16 Defendant King lacks information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining
17 allegations in this Paragraph and on that basis denies the allegations.

18 124. In answering Paragraph 124 of the Complaint, Putative Defendant King lacks
19 information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in this Paragraph and on 20 that basis denies the allegations.

21 125. In answering Paragraph 125 of the Complaint, Putative Defendant King denies that 22 the National Union policy limits apply because National Union rejected an offer of judgment
23 within policy limits. To the extent that a further response is required to the remaining allegations 24 in this Paragraph, Putative Defendant King lacks information sufficient to form a belief as to the 25 truth of the allegations and on that basis denies the remaining allegations.

26 126. In answering Paragraph 126 of the Complaint, this Paragraph consists of a legal 27 conclusion to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Putative
28 Defendant King denies that National Union properly invoked interpleader.

NEGLECT LAW

1 127. In answering Paragraph 127 of the Complaint, this Paragraph does not contain a
 2 factual allegation to which a response is required. To the extent a response is required, Putative
 3 Defendant King lacks information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in
 4 this Paragraph and on that basis denies the allegations.

5 128. In answering the unnumbered Paragraph and seven-subpart prayer for relief
 6 following Paragraph 127 of the Complaint, Putative Defendant King is not required to respond to 7 such prayers for relief. To the extent a response is required, Putative Defendant King denies that 8 NUFIC is entitled to any of the relief requested, including, but not limited to, discharge, dismissal,
 9 and attorneys' fees and costs.

10 129. Putative Defendant King denies each and every allegation of NUFIC's Complaint
 11 to the extent an allegation is not otherwise admitted or denied.

PRAAYER FOR RELIEF

13 For the foregoing reasons, and as set forth below, Putative Defendant Lisa King prays that 14 NUFIC take nothing by way of its improper interpleader, that the Court dismiss NUFIC's
 15 Compliant, and that the Court award Putative Defendant King her attorneys' fees, costs, the relief
 16 requested against NUFIC, and any other relief deemed just and proper.

III. AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

18 Putative Defendant Lisa King submits the following affirmative defenses. Putative
 19 Defendant King reserves the right to raise any claim or defense not asserted herein; the defenses
 20 asserted below shall be without prejudice to Putative Defendant's assertion of additional or 21 amended answers, defenses, claims, or arguments.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Failure to State a Claim)

24 NUFIC's Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Statute of Limitations)

27 NUFIC's Complaint is barred by the applicable statute of limitations.

28 ...

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE(Failure to Satisfy Interpleader Requirements)

NUFIC has failed to meet the statutory and equitable prerequisites for interpleader and therefore is not entitled to relief under 28 U.S.C. § 1335 or otherwise.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE(Abstention)

The Court should abstain from exercising jurisdiction over this interpleader to avoid interfering with issues pending in parallel state or federal actions.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE(Laches)

NUFIC's Complaint is barred by the doctrine of laches.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE(Unclean Hands/Abuse of Process)

NUFIC's Complaint is barred by the doctrine of unclean hands.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE(Waiver/EstoppeL)

NUFIC's claims are barred by the doctrines of waiver and/or estoppel, as NUFIC unreasonably delayed interpleader and acted inconsistently with its interpleader posture.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE(Failure to Name and/or Join Necessary Parties)

NUFIC has failed to name and/or join all necessary parties to this action.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE(Interpleader Does Not Involve or Affect NUFIC's Independent Liability for Bad Faith or Other Torts)

This interpleader action does not involve, affect, or otherwise impair any claims, causes of action, and/or rights to damages against National Union related to National Union's independent liability, including, but not limited to, claims for Bad Faith Liability. See 9/30/25 Order [ECF No. 172] at 15 ("[I]nterpleader does not shield a stakeholder from tort liability, nor from liability in excess of the stake when a stakeholder may be independently liable to one or more claimants. And National Union affirmatively represents that they are not seeking discharge of any liability other than that related to the limits of the policy at issue here.”) (Citations omitted).

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Lack of Personal Jurisdiction)

6 NUFIC has failed to establish personal jurisdiction over Putative Defendant for purposes
7 of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2361 or otherwise.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Lack of Subject Matter Jurisdiction)

10 This Court does not have subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C.
11 § 1335, § 1331, or otherwise.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Improper Joinder)

14 NUFIC has improperly joined parties who it knew or should have known had no claim to 15 the funds it seeks to deposit.

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(NUFIC is Not Entitled to Discharge, Dismissal, or Attorneys' Fees/Costs)

18 NUFIC has improperly invoked interpleader and is not entitled to discharge, dismissal, or 19 attorneys' fees/costs.

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Improper Interpleader)

22 NUFIC's interpleader is an attempt to exhaust obligations and receive relief not available 23 in an interpleader action.

FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Putative Defendant's Attorneys' Fees/Costs)

26 Putative Defendant is entitled to her attorneys' fees and costs.
